

Malaga Dulce

Type of wine

Malaga wine

Appellation of origin

Malaga

Grape variety

Moscatel and Pedro Ximenez

Presentation

0.75 l

Elaboration

The grape variety Moscatel is grown in the sunstruck area of Axarquia and Pedro Ximén is grown in Mountains of Malaga area. Both of them are mountainous region with impressive rugged hills on soils covered with decomposing shale. The climate is warm and dry.

Maturing and aging

12 months in American oak barrels.

Analytic description

15% Vol. Residual sugar 150g/l.

Organoleptical qualities

Mahogany, clean and brilliant. In the nose, mature fruit, raisins and caramel. Smooth and unctuous.

Consumption

Serve between 12 and 14 °C

