

VILLA DEI LADRI 2010

Barolo DOCG • Italy

WINEFILE

Style Rich and flavoursome, bone dry

Grape Variety Nebbiolo 100%

Colour Mid plum red; orange rim

Aroma Red berries, violets, roses and hints of tar

Taste Firm yet fine, full of rich berry flavour and juicy tannins

Drink by End 2018 Alcohol 14%

“

If you've ever dreamt of drinking sublime Barolo, let this 2010 make your dreams come true

”

Davy Zyw, Buyer for Italy

The 2010 is one of the most magnificent Barolo vintages ever, so we'd urge you to treat yourself to gorgeous Villa dei Ladri. Enjoy one of Italy's most acclaimed reds from mountainous Piedmont. Wonderfully fragrant with truffle and rose petal hints.

This is quite simply the best value authentic Barolo we've come across in years. After two hours in a decanter you're treated to those normally expensive aromas of rose petal, truffle and tar. Antonio Galloni, the Italian wine expert writing on vinousmedia.com, says 2010 is “the greatest young Barolo vintage I have tasted in 18 years of visiting the region and a lifetime of buying, cellaring and drinking these wines”. Talented oenologist Claudio Manera heads up the winemaking team at Araldica, a group of three cellars with control of over 2,000 hectares of vines in Piedmont. His ability to select only the finest Nebbiolo grapes ensures a blend of exemplary quality. Decant and serve with game casserole or wild mushroom risotto.

Hilly Piedmont is known for Autumnal mists, truffles, mushrooms and the Nebbiolo grape, rarely if ever found elsewhere